Hunt on for attacker who grabbed girl, 15

Chloe to lead out her heroes

SCHOOLGIRL Chloe Westrope is the envy of her classmates after being chosen to act as mascot for her favourite football team at their last game of the season.

Chloe, nine, is hoping to run out onto the pitch at Ipswich Town's Portman Road ground ahead of her favourite players Dean Bowditch and Dan Harding for the match on Sunday, May 4.

The Cangle Primary School pupil has been a Blues fan all her life, going along to matches with dad Richard and becoming a Junior Blues member.

But the rest of the family at Trundle Close, Haverhill – her mum, Julie, and older sister, Jessica, 16 – are Manchester United fans and will not be going to the game. Some serious rivalry could arise in future if Ipswich win promotion to the Premiership.

Mum, Julie, said: "She was over the moon when she got the letter and is really excited about it. We all like football, but it is only Chloe and her dad who support Ipswich."

POLICE are hunting a man who grabbed a 15-year-old girl and tried to sexually assault her as she walked her dog in Haverhill.

The terrifying incident happened at Foxburrow Close between 9.30pm and 10.30pm on Saturday.

The teenager had been followed by a man as she walked her dog along Cambridge Way, Howe Road and onto the old railway line.

He grabbed her round the waist and attempted to touch her inappropriately. But when the man lunged at her she pushed him in the stomach and shouted, and he ran off.

A police spokesman said the girl was unhurt, but very shaken after the incident, adding: "Any report of an offence of this nature we take very seriously and look into fully".

Acting Sergeant Kelly Waggett of Haverhill police, said: "This was a frightening attack on a teenage girl which has left her shaken and distressed."

"The offender has followed her quite some way and I would appeal for anyone who may have seen the victim walking her dog along this route, or the man walking in the same area, to contact Haverhill police as a matter of urgency."

The man is described as being of slim build and wearing tracksuit bottoms, a hooded top with the hood up, and white trainers.

Anyone with information can contact Acting Sgt Kelly Waggett on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555111.

Spare any change for our hospice appeal?

BY Jo Deeks

EVERY penny will count if we are to reach our £40,000 target for the Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal – and staff at the Co-op store in Jubilee Walk are already busy filling up collection tins to help us get there.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for the St Nicholas Hospice, which needs the cash to provide in-home services for patients in the Haverhill area, has just handed over to the store nine new collection tins bearing the hospice appeal logo.

He has also collected tins that were already filled with customers' change and added just over £50 to the appeal total, which now stands at £7,323.

Mr Norris said: "Our collection boxes bring in more than £100,000 a year, which is really valuable. People don't notice the money but it all adds up and they soon get full."

"It is not all about big donations, every penny really does count."

More collection boxes will be distributed around the town and anyone who would like one can collect it from the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill, or the hospice shop at the top of the town's High Street.

■ Brownies in Haverhill will be brewing up on Saturday morning to boost our appeal.

Members of the Haverhill Guiding Association will be demonstrating their expert tea and coffee making skills at the Old Independent Church Hall in Hamlet Road from 10am to noon.

Homemade cakes will also be on sale for those who prefer their tea and cake later in the day and there will also be an opportunity to talk to leaders and register for Brownies.

Barbara Adshead, guiding leader, said: "Every penny raised will go to the appeal. Brownies have been hard at work making sure that their hostess skills are perfect for this big event."

■ Elsewhere, help has come from further afield, with a bumper £576 donation from the Long Melford Surgery, where a team of nine staff members, some dressed as St Trinians schoolgirls, completed a five-mile walk as part of the Sudbury Fun Run on a cold Good Friday morning.

Sue Cadge, a receptionist and health care assistant at the practice, said: "We have done it for other charities, this is our fifth year."

"We asked around and it was unanimous that everyone chose your appeal because we thought it was such a good cause."

■ Keep those donations coming and let us know of your fundraising plans on (01440) 703891 or email editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

How can you help us hit the target?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fundraising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal. Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible. If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

Sheltered homes to close for £2.5m upgrade

ELDERLY residents in their 80s and 90s have been told their run-down sheltered housing complex will close.

Horace Eves Close in Withersfield Road, Haverhill, has 18 bed-sits and six one-bedroom flats, but Havebury Housing plans to close it and redevelop the site at a cost of £2.5 million over the next two years.

It will create 16 self-contained general needs flats, five of which will be designed for people with special needs.

Karen Mayhew, director of housing for Havebury, said the complex, built in 1975, was in poor condition and did not meet modern standards. Site constraints meant it could not easily be upgraded as sheltered housing, so it had been decided to move elderly residents elsewhere.

Residents will be given £4,400 to compensate them for the loss of their homes, all removal costs will be met, and all removal services provided.

They will be offered a choice of accommodation to move into, either at new flats being built in York Road, or at one of Haverhill's other sheltered accommodation schemes.

Five of the homes are already empty.

Ms Mayhew said: "No-one will be homeless and everyone will be given every assistance in moving into their new homes."

"We are telling everyone early so that they have plenty of time to prepare for the move. We are confident that homes more suited to their needs can be found in Haverhill, if that is what they want."

"We have not applied for planning permission yet and the work will be done at Horace Eves over the next two years."

The 18 bed-sits at Horace Eves have a toilet and washbasin but no shower or bathing facilities, which are shared. The site is also on a number of levels and although there is a lift, it does not allow access to all the flats.

Swimmers dive in to fund cancer care charity work

SWIMMERS in Haverhill made a big splash for charity on Saturday as they completed the Swimathon Challenge at the Haverhill Leisure Centre.

The pool there was one of 500 across the country taking part in the event, with swimmers helping to raise £1.8 million for Marie Curie Cancer Care. The charity provides high-quality nursing, totally free of charge, to give terminally ill patients the choice of dying at home where they can be supported by their families.

As well as providing a home nursing service, the charity runs 10 Marie Curie hospices, which promote the best quality of life for people with cancer and other illnesses, also completely free. Michele Curran, sports development co-ordinator at the leisure centre, said: "It is fantastic to see everybody in our community coming together for this giant fundraising challenge, achieving personal fitness goals and raising money for Marie Curie Cancer Care, to enable terminally ill patients to have the best possible end-of-life care."

Walk-in clinic wins full support from partners

MEMBERS of the Haverhill Partnership group have given their unanimous backing to plans for a new walk-in health care clinic for the town.

Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) wants to establish the first facility of its kind in the county in Haverhill. The £800,000 walk-in clinic will be open from 8am to 8pm, seven days a week, and could be up and running by next April.

The plans were criticised at a town meeting to discuss the clinic last month, with some claiming it would not provide any new facilities that were not already available from the town's GPs, who face a £300,000 cut to their budgets over the next five years.

At a special partnership group meeting last week, it was agreed that the facility should be "welcomed with open arms" and that a letter should be sent to the PCT "enthusiastically supporting" the plan.

Mick Smith, of the Haverhill Association of Voluntary Organisations, said: "It is the kind of service that Haverhill has been crying out for over the last 40 years and as far as we are concerned it cannot come quickly enough.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"However, you have to involve the doctors in this because they are the people we trust.

"There is a site set aside for this kind of facility in the north of Haverhill where 750 homes are being built and I would have thought that would be an ideal location for this, with adequate parking, which the centre of Haverhill does not have.

"I welcome this with open arms, I think it is fantastic."

Melanie Craig, of the PCT, said facilities already provided by GPs such as treatment for minor injuries and minor surgery would be expanded within the new facility, which would be GP-led and developed with existing GPs.

The consultation period was also being extended, and a local group would be formed to see what new outpatient and diagnostic facilities people wanted to see at the clinic.

Julian Herbert, deputy chief executive of the PCT, said some of the consultation so far had showed that people were confusing plans for the clinic with cuts to doctors' budgets, which he said was a separate issue.

Mr Herbert said the budget cuts were part of a £3.3 million budget and it was up to GPs how they ran their business and whether they decided to lose doctors.

He hoped the existing practices would bid to run the new centre, which would provide an overflow for their services which did not exist at present.

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill Town Clerk, said the town's recent Health Check survey had shown that improved medical facilities were a top priority.

Mike Dawson, corporate director of community at St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said Haverhill residents had been calling for better medical facilities for the town for many years.

"We have the offer of investment for the first time in a long time in new medical facilities in Haverhill. I am really pleased that this partnership wants to grab that opportunity with both hands."

MP joins the fight for P.O.

RESIDENTS campaigning to save their local post office have got the backing of an MP who says there is no sound basis for closing it.

Richard Spring, Haverhill's MP, has written to Laura Tarling, development manager for the Post Office's national consultation team on closures, to express his fears about the closure of Chalkstone Post Office in Haverhill.

Mr Spring said he was particularly concerned because 24 per cent of the population of Haverhill is over 65, well above the Suffolk average of 18 per cent and East of England figure of 16 per cent.

He wrote: "I have visited the post office and the postmaster is determined to remain open.

"The case put for the retention of this branch is very compelling. Chalkstone Post Office is situated in the local Londis store. It serves around 435 customers per week who rely upon it for the valuable services it provides.

"The owner has invested a lot of money in his business and does not want to lose the post office outlet. I am bitterly disappointed that the decision has not been based on a detailed consideration of the viability of the post office.

"We should be able to properly scrutinise the post office's financial books to see if it is economically viable."

The MP says the nearest post office is nearly a mile away so closure would lead to "more congestion, more pollution and more expense" and many Chalkstone estate residents would struggle to walk.

The post office was opened 10 years ago by Ravinder Rai, in his grocery store, following a campaign by residents. It serves about 1,000 homes on the estate, along with other housing developments.

Mr Rai says he needs a part-time member of staff to run the post office with him, due to demand, and he does not know how the main branch would cope if his were lost.

■ GENEROSITY APPRECIATED . . . theft victim Eileen Walker with the donated £40.

Picture: Keith Heppell 479544.

Special gift for victim of crime

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

INJURED great-grandmother Eileen Walker was horrified when she had £40 stolen in Addenbrooke's Hospital accident and emergency.

But her shock turned to joy when a generous ambulance crew posted two crisp £20 notes through her door.

Mrs Walker, 84, had gone to the Cambridge hospital with a head wound after a nasty fall at her home in Pentlow Hawke Close, Haverhill, last week.

While waiting in A&E for 10 stitches to be put in, Mrs Walker visited the toilet and accidentally left her handbag behind.

The ambulance crew found it, but minus the cash.

She said: "I went to spend a penny and my mind was on other things as I thought the nurse might call my name to have my stitches done.

"When I got outside I said to the ambulance lady that I had forgotten my handbag and she went to get it for me. She said to check my purse and when I did the money had gone. I had £40 as I have frozen meals delivered to the house and it was to pay for them the next day.

"I was a bit annoyed, more than anything, that someone could go into a hospital where people are upset and steal from them. I could not believe they could stoop so low."

But to her surprise, ambulance crew members Abigail Merrell and Andy Sprake dropped an envelope through her letterbox with replacement cash inside.

"I could not believe it. I think it was wonderful what they did and they were so kind to me. I really did want to thank them in person," said an emotional Mrs Walker.

Her daughter, Eileen Randall, added: "We were absolutely furious and the people in A&E could not believe it, they kept saying: 'They are scumbags'. You don't expect that to happen in a hospital.

"We could not believe it when we found the envelope from the ambulance crew.

"They were crisp notes that had not come from anyone's wallet or purse, they must have gone straight to the cash point to get them out. It was not their fault at all and it was such a lovely thing for them to do."

A1307 junction needs traffic lights

Sir, I would strongly like to add my support to efforts to prevent additional deaths at Cardinal's Green, Horseheath, on the A1307.

Why doesn't the council provide traffic lights at that junction? Firstly, and of course more importantly, it would help people wishing to go to the bus stop safely, without any fear of having to avoid or miss the oncoming traffic, especially at peak times. There would be no problems waiting for a safe time to cross the road.

Secondly, it would assist vehicles attempting to turn into the A1304 at peak times when there can be long queues.

There have been far too many deaths that might have been prevented if the traffic had had to stop.

'Memorials should serve as warnings'

BY Laura Jean Morris

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE mother of a road accident victim has branded new council rules to remove flowers from crash sites "heartless".

Cambridgeshire County Council has formalised a policy to consider removing flowers left in memory of loved ones after 30 days.

But Shirley Ling, who lost her 20-year-old daughter, Gemma, in a tragic crash on the M1 in 2004, slammed the removal of flowers and memorials as "heartless" and says the home-made roadside memorials are a key part of the grieving process for some families.

Mrs Ling, of Chapplewint Drive, Haverhill, said: "The argument that it is to keep roads safe does not really work. These should serve as warnings, especially to young people who think they are invincible, as to the consequences of what they do on the road - it can destroy not just one life, but the lives of whole families."

"The memorial garden we created for my daughter is very important. There is nothing harder than trying to cope with the loss of a child and the garden is like keeping part of her alive."

"Everyone grieves in their own way and families who lay down flowers often take great care of the sites - they should be allowed to keep them there as long as they need."

Mrs Ling was so moved by the grief of the Haverhill family of Stevie-Jay Sims, 17, who died in 2006 on the A1307 in Linton, that she wrote to them.

Her letter said: "My heart

Removing floral tributes is heartless, says mother

goes out to you, her parents and sister, who I know will have feelings of numbness, disbelief and helplessness, that as parents there is nothing that can ever bring Stevie-Jay back to you."

Denise Sims, mother of Stevie-Jay said: "I am very upset about this. None of the flowers have caused an accident as far as I know and I can see how they could be seen as a distraction, but they are an acknowledgement of what happened and it is important that is not covered up."

Mark Kemp, director of highways and access at the council, defended the rule saying it was a policy which has been adhered to for some time, but had simply been written down for the first time.

Mr Kemp said: "We understand this is a very sensitive issue and flowers and memorials are an important part of the grieving process."

"In general we don't encourage roadside memorials because of road safety - people may become distracted by them, and they are often on busy and fast roads. Clearly if someone has been killed there may be a problem with the location and a memorial may not help."

"But this is not about removing more permanent memorials people have placed without first talking to the families - we acknowledge a difference between flowers and memorials. We work closely with bereavement liaison officers from the police force to make sure that what we do is sympathetic."

Meanwhile, Chris Cullum, a former Haverhill town councillor and campaigner for improvements to the notorious A1307, accused the county council of being "embarrassed" by the number of memorials which had appeared and the fact that nothing had been done to halt the death toll on the road.

He said: "I would like to know why they have suddenly decided to do this. I think this is going to make people even more angry about the fact that they are not doing anything positive about the road."

Army sets dates

TWO events are being organised by Haverhill's Salvation Army group on Saturday, May 10.

From 10am-noon there will be a garage sale at the Clements Community Shop, with good quality second-hand furniture available. The store is on the parade of shops at the top of Leiston Road, near to Londis and the Suffolk Punch.

That evening at 7.30pm, in the Chantry Road Salvation Army Hall, the group presents the Waterbeach Salvation Army Songsters, Choir and Band. Captain Stuart Ashman invites all along for an evening of music and fellowship.

Donation tickets are £2.50 in advance or on the door and money will go to the Army's Red Shield Appeal.

The art of capturing memories

A NOVEL way of keeping precious memories of babies before they grow up is offered by a sculptress with a studio in her own home.

The Baby Sculpture Studio in Haverhill, recently launched by Lucie Whiting, is the latest business to support the Weekly News Buy Local campaign.

Lucie lives with her husband, John and their children, Alexander, aged two, and Sophia, four months, just off the Market Square in Haverhill town centre. Lucie said: "I have been producing life-casts for family and friends for quite some time now and love seeing the excitement and happiness felt when I deliver these treasured mementos."

"A casting session takes around 45 minutes, but each life-cast takes hours of work to make it absolutely perfect, but the end result is worth it. Each sculpture produced is an exact replica of a little hand or foot, complete with fingerprints, wrinkles and little toes. "A baby life-cast enables you to capture those precious memories of your baby before they slip away." Lucie has been an Ofsted-registered childminder since 2006 and has plenty of experience of working with little ones and their parents. Both she and her husband have also undergone enhanced police checks and their home has been inspected and approved by Ofsted. Lucie produces high quality sculptures in a fine-cast marble effect, cold-cast bronze and cold-cast aluminium, which are exact replicas of a baby's hands and feet, and that of parents, grandparents or older children. The casts can be painted and are presented on real marble plinths, or in handmade box frames. Moulds can be taken in the comfort of a customer's own home or at Lucie's studio.

People can also arrange to see Lucie at PlayDaze Funhouse in Linton, where she displays examples of her work and carries out casting sessions. Prices start from £45 and copies of the moulds are kept in case more imprints are wanted in future. For more information, call 07949 559911.

Volunteers go wild to give nature a big boost

DERELICT land will be turned into a new nature walk thanks to young volunteers and a grant from a local housing group.

The Go Wild Project in Haverhill involves members of the Havebury Youth Forum, and at its launch on Monday the group received a £3,000 boost from the Havebury Housing Partnership.

An additional £1,500 was awarded to Go Wild last month by Havebury's Community Investment Fund.

The project is aimed at young people aged between nine and 19 who, in partnership with Haverhill East Town Park, will get involved in conservation work, help with the upkeep of the park, install benches and build their own bird boxes.

From next month, a group of young people will be working on a piece of land opposite Havebury's offices in Manor Road, and anyone interested is welcome to join them.

The new wildlife haven will be open for local schools and groups to learn about natural habitats.

Plans for the new wildlife site include a nature trail, a small pond and seating, some of which will be made by the volunteers from wood and other natural materials.

Work is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Elaine Hewes, volunteer co-ordinator at Haverhill Volunteer Centre, which is supporting the project, said: "We are looking forward to getting started and would like to hear from any volunteers who would be interested in helping to create the wildlife area which will be enjoyed by many for educational and leisure purposes."

Roger Bolton, chairman of Havebury's Tenants' Forum, said: "We fully support the Go Wild project as it will not only provide a great resource for the local community, but will also give young people a taste of the rewards which can be gained through voluntary work."

Anyone who wants to support the project or volunteer, can contact Haverhill Volunteer Centre on (01440) 708444.

Addict back behind bars after thefts

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A DRUG addict spared jail in February so he could get treatment for his addiction is back behind bars.

Liam Darby, 23, was remanded in custody until June 2 by magistrates at Bury St Edmunds last week after they agreed his case should be committed to crown court.

Darby, of Eastern Avenue, Haverhill, admitted burgling a house in Calford Drive, Haverhill, on April 7, where he stole a mobile phone, a police warrant card, credit cards and keys.

He also admitted handling stolen goods between April 1 and April 9 and going equipped for theft on April 9.

He denied charges of burglary from a house at Gainsborough Road, Haverhill, on April 6 and theft of a car stereo from a car in Haverhill on April 9.

Rosalind Clark, prosecuting, said the charges were not suitable for summary trial as they involved night-time burglaries in homes that were occupied. She did not believe the magistrates' powers of punishment were sufficient. Magistrates agreed to decline jurisdiction and remand Darby, who made no application for bail, in custody for six weeks.

He was given an eight-month prison sentence, suspended for two years, by the same court in February when magistrates spared him an immediate jail term so that he could seek help for his addiction.

At the February hearing, the court was told that just four days after he was granted bail for a string of theft offences, including breaking into vehicles, Darby was rushed to hospital after an overdose of heroin.

He spent two days in Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge recovering and was then remanded in custody for possessing the Class A drug.

Darby admitted being in possession of heroin on January 25, as well as six charges of theft in December last year and asked for a further four theft offences to be taken into consideration.

Kevin Lowson, prosecuting, said Darby was granted bail when he appeared for sentence on the theft charges in January on condition that he attended assessments for drug rehabilitation treatment. Just days later an ambulance was called to his home after he had taken a heroin overdose. Police found a spent syringe and another containing heroin.

At one time Darby had been sleeping in his own car and told police he broke into a vehicle to find a place to sleep.

County slammed over £350-a-day detectives

A COUNCIL has been criticised for hiring £350-a-day detectives to crack down on staff bullying.

Suffolk County Council is currently advertising for a number of part-time investigators as part of its anti-bullying policy, but a councillor has slammed the new roles as unnecessary and argued it is a job for the in-house human resources department.

Labour deputy leader, Kevan Lim, said: "Why they need to go outside to pay £350 a day I don't know.

"I believe this reflects their whole attitude towards wasting money.

"The daily rate is equivalent to an annual salary of £91,000, although deputy Tory leader Jane Storey said the position would only be filled as and when required.

"If we can get someone to work as a mediator rather than go to court or a tribunal, it's a lot cheaper for the council and the taxpayer."

The comments coincide with an inquiry into a move to pay the council's new chief executive £200,000 a year.

Kedington

THE monthly meeting of the parish council was held at the library last Tuesday with the vice chairman Cllr John Cahill presiding and welcoming those present, including county councillor the Reverend Karen Knight, Sergeant Neil Ireland of the Safer Neighbourhood Team and Shaun Jarvis of the Wildlife Group. Apologies were received from the chairman Cllr Terry Wheeler.

Concern was expressed regarding the heavy traffic that was continuing to use Mill Road and the damage being caused to the bank at Church Hill, which was gradually being destroyed.

In his report, Sgt Ireland said only six cases of vandalism had been reported since January, compared with 16 for the same period last year. Speed checks had been carried out, in particular on the Haverhill Road. Problems had been reported concerning traffic parking on Mill Road, in particular near the school. Sgt Ireland agreed to investigate, and also to look at the ongoing issue of

Wartime street party for pupils

A GOOD old-fashioned knees-up took place at a primary school as pupils took a step back in time to enjoy a wartime street party.

All 56 pupils at Thurlow Primary School took part in a World War II Day last Friday. Some of the village's older residents visited to share their recollections of life during the war years. In the afternoon a street party was organised with wartime food served to children and staff dressed in period outfits. The event was organised by teacher Rachel Bacon as part of a wartime theme in the children's studies.

plants and it was therefore proposed to appeal to have ivy, hypericum or periwinkle, which grows like a weed.

Plans for a new parish council office adjacent to the community centre had been submitted by Peter Donoghue to each councillor for inspection and comments. The discussions also centred on whether the building would have an effect on the roots of the ancient sweet chestnut tree close by. No decision will be made on the plans until the chairman of the Community Association, Steve Brown, is consulted. Should the project get the go-ahead, the clerk could seek funding, including from Cllr Rev Karen Knight's Locality Fund.

■ In what has now become an annual event in aid of parish church funds, the duck race on the Stour will take place on Monday, May 5, starting from the Mill Road Bridge at 1pm. Tickets are £1 per duck and prizes for the first three to arrive at the Weir Great Meadow are £25, £15 and £10. Tickets are available from the newsagents and village stores.

parking cars at road junctions. Damage was also reported to newly-erected equipment on the Risbridge Meadow. Two boys had been spoken to in respect of the damage. However, overall there had been an improvement in the problems in the village. Cllr Rev Knight reported on the ongoing boundary changes and the school reorganisation review. Parish Clerk Marion Farrant reported on repairs having been carried out to damaged road signs in School Road, Rectory Road and Dash Road. Chairman of the finance committee, Cllr John Cahill reported a satisfactory financial position. Following the announcement at the last meeting that the county council would not supply any more grit, the gritting operator Mr Pound had written to the county council and secured a further delivery of sand. Mr Pound was thanked for his action. However, it is hoped it will not be required this year. The clerk reported that the Garden Society had estimated the cost of planting the side of the bank with plants to stop soil from spreading on to the footway would be in the region of £300. The council did not feel justified in spending this amount of money on

Chris returns after unlucky break

A KARATE fan who won a black belt aged 12 is back in training again after breaking a bone in his hand.

Christian Potter, a member of the Haverhill Shotokan Karate Club, was one of a group of youngsters who passed recent grading tests.

Gill Payne, who leads the club, said: "It is quite unusual to pass at that age. They have to start training at about six.

"It was unfortunate Christian broke his bone not long after winning his black belt. He could not train for about five weeks, but he is back again now. We hold regular quarterly gradings and they all passed."

The club is open to children aged five upwards and adults of all ages. They meet at Chalkstone Middle School in Haverhill. It will be holding an inter-club competition on May 4. Contact Gill on (01440) 708365.

Deadline for awards extended

THE race for prizes in the Haverhill CB9 Business Awards in May is hotting up – and the closing date for entries has been extended to the end of the month.

Companies can enter themselves or nominate others in 12 categories that are up for grabs. The awards will be handed out at a glittering ball on Saturday, May 17, at Chilford Hall, Linton, in the second competition organised by Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, in association with the Weekly News.

Among the nominations received so far are:

■ Customer Care and Service Award: Key Education Services Ltd, Atlantic Chauffeur Service, Aqua-Tech Cleaning Specialist and Ardex UK Ltd.

■ Small Business Award: Key Education Services Ltd and Collette's Entertainment School.

■ Retailer of the Year Award: Essential Shops Ltd.

■ Environmental Awareness Award: Aqua-Tech Cleaning Specialist and Herbert Retail Ltd.

■ Best Use of Technology Award: Aqua-Tech Cleaning Specialist.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

■ Young Entrepreneur Award: Buzzy Beads, A Revolution and Collette's Entertainment School.

■ Large Business Award: IFF, The Excell Group and Ardex UK Ltd.

■ Marketing Strategy of the Year Award: Ardex UK Ltd.

■ Export Achievement Award: Mansol Preforms Ltd and Ardex UK Ltd.

■ New Business Award: Key Education Services Ltd and Essential Shops Ltd.

There is also an overall award for the company of the year.

Tickets for the awards are now on sale, with the black-tie event which will include a three-course dinner and music by Jacen and the Rockanauts.

Tickets cost £75 per person. Fundraising on the evening will support St Nicholas Hospice.

For entry forms or details about the awards and the dinner, contact Jo Morgan on (01638) 666147.

Forms are also available on www.cb9businessawards.co.uk

Fitness centre plans

PLANS to erect a temporary building at Haverhill Leisure Centre have been submitted to planners.

The building will be used as a fitness centre and changing facilities while the leisure centre undergoes a major revamp.

Abbeycroft Leisure has applied to St Edmundsbury Borough Council for consent to put up the building on land adjacent to the rear of the leisure centre in Eringshausen Way.

A second application to re-clad the external elevations and provide a new entrance canopy at the leisure centre has also been made.

The centre will close for a year from June so refurbishment work can take place.

Hundreds are caught in road safety swoop

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

HUNDREDS of “thoughtless” motorists were caught in a police clampdown last week.

Last Friday’s day of action, code named Operation Guardian – Saving Lives, was the third day of action staged by police and other agencies in West Suffolk.

Trading standards as well as Customs and Revenue officers were taking part in the operation in the Haverhill, Newmarket and Mildenhall areas.

Officers in Haverhill were concentrating on two trouble spots in the town, speeding traffic at the top of Wrattling Road and drivers ignoring the access restrictions in the High Street between 10am and 4pm.

Acting Sgt Kelly Waggett was leading the operation in the town and said only two drivers had been issued with speeding tickets in Wrattling Road. Several others were warned about their speed by mid-morning.

She said: “It is really to reinforce the road safety message to members of the public about their speed, use of mobile phones, seat belts and the condition of their vehicles.

“We do get a lot of complaints about vehicles in the High Street during the restricted hours, so that is being targeted.”

In the Newmarket and Mildenhall areas police and “partner agencies” were on duty at six locations across the Forest Heath district.

Extra speed camera checks were also carried out.

The last day of action in November resulted in 367 vehicles being stopped and 355 traffic offences dealt with – most by fixed penalty tickets.

Chief Insp Neal Atwell said: “Sadly we continue to find that many drivers are still committing these offences, without thought for the danger they are putting themselves and other road users in.

“The ultimate goal is saving lives through enforcement of the law and education.”

He said the locations had been chosen after complaints from residents and suggestions from police Safer Neighbourhood teams.

Fun times ahead for new group

TWO teenagers from Haverhill are urging youngsters to join a new group.

Havebury Housing Partnership's new Youth Forum aims to encourage young people to play an active part in their local community.

Rosemary Start, 12, who attends Parkway Middle School, and Tochim Eduputa, 15, who goes to Samuel Ward Upper Arts and Technology College, plan to visit local schools and speak to students about the forum's plans.

They are working closely with Havebury's Tenants' Forum to spread the word and urge other young people to sign up for the group.

The forum aims to get young people involved in community projects, help them access training and provide them with references for future employment.

It will also offer an opportunity for young people to meet and have their say on housing and other issues that affect them.

Tochim said: “The group will be a great way for young people to get together and make a difference, meet new people, learn new skills and have fun.

“We’ve got lots of exciting plans in the pipeline and I would encourage any local young people to sign up and give it a go.”

Contact Havebury's communities and tenants' adviser, Sarah Edison, on (01284) 722033 or e-mail sarah.edision@havebury.com

If the balance falls below the minimum investment, the interest rate will be fixed at 1.00% gross p.a./aer.

The gross rate is the rate before deducting tax at the rate applicable to savings income. The annual equivalent rate (AER) is a notional rate which illustrates the contractual rate (excluding any bonus interest payable) as if paid and compounded on an annual basis. Full details of terms and conditions applying to all Society accounts are contained in the savings, ISA and e-saver terms and condition leaflets. The frequency of Society interest is paid annually, with the exception of the Cashbuild 60 and e-saver (issue 2) monthly income option accounts, which are paid monthly. Interest rates of Society accounts not listed on this advert are available on request. All rates are subject to variation. Saffron Building Society is a member of the Financial Ombudsman Service and subscribes to The Banking Code. Member of the Building Societies Association. * This is not a stakeholder product.

Bank of England base rate is 5.00% with effect 10/04/2008.

All rates are subject to variation. Interest will normally be paid at the net rate after deduction of Income Tax at the lower rate, currently 20%. Tax may be reclaimed from the Inland Revenue when the amount deducted exceeds an account holder's liability to tax. Interest may be paid at the gross rate, without the deduction of tax to account holders who are eligible and register that they do not expect to be liable to Income Tax and in certain other cases.

PCT gives hope to diabetes sufferers

DIABETES sufferers in Haverhill could be among the first in the country to receive a new drug.

Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) has agreed to fund the drug treatment Exenatide and specialists will now be able to use draft guidelines produced by the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE) to identify which patients will benefit from it.

Dr Padmanabhan Badrinath, consultant in public health medicine at the PCT, said specialists believe that up to 50 patients in the Suffolk PCT area will meet the NICE criteria.

He said: "The PCT's decision to follow the NICE guidelines and support the local diabetes consultants in giving their patients the most appropriate and up-to-date medications available shows how closely we work with clinicians and listen to them.

"We heard evidence that Exenatide is a clinically effective and cost-effective option for a small, specific group of patients which is why the clinical priorities group agreed to go ahead and follow the NICE draft guidelines.

"As far as I'm aware, Suffolk PCT is one of only about half-a-dozen PCTs that has so far agreed to fund this drug."

Dr Badrinath, who is a member of the clinical priorities group, said Exenatide would be used by type two diabetes patients who are taking diabetes tablets but have poor diabetes control and have a high body mass index. These patients do not respond to normal doses of insulin and need high doses which make them put on weight, whereas Exenatide might help them to lose weight.

Dr Badrinath said Suffolk PCT was expecting to spend up to £50,000 a year on the drug.

Patients prescribed it are expected to be on the drug for life if they respond to the treatment. But Dr Badrinath emphasised it would benefit only a small, specific group of patients and will initially be prescribed only by hospital consultants.

Exenatide would not be prescribed routinely by GPs as, being a new drug, patient progress would need to be closely monitored, he added.

Top time at library

LIBRARY sessions for more mature Haverhill residents are proving popular and another is planned for the end of the month.

The library recently launched a new session called Top Time, which is held once a month, on the last Tuesday of the month from 2-4pm.

It is an opportunity for people to come together for a fun social afternoon and to build up friendships. There is usually a guest speaker and, in the past, there has been a lively talk on the history of nursing and a 1950s memory box.

This month Neil Lanham will give a talk on the history of 1960s Haverhill through the eyes of an auctioneer. The event is on Tuesday, April 29. All are welcome and refreshments will be provided.

Plans go in

PLANS for residential development and alterations to the existing vehicle access on land at Haverhill Snooker and Bowl in Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, have been submitted to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

Happy laughs

THE Mancunian funnyman John Bishop comes to The Junction in Cambridge next Wednesday. Although he's been performing since 2000, Bishop had a lucrative marketing job by day and performed comedy at night until he made the plunge recently and dived head first into a stand-up career. As well as his own radio show in Liverpool and a popular blog, he has also written the Radio 4 play Happy Families. Tickets are £10-£12 and the show starts at 8pm. To book call (01223) 511511.

Best of Zep

WITH rumours of a Led Zeppelin reunion world tour still unconfirmed, there's a chance to see the next best thing at the Cambridge Corn Exchange on Saturday. Boot Led Zeppelin are the UK's top Led Zep tribute act and perform a stage show including authentic costumes, stage effects and music from across the band's eight studio albums. Tickets are £14.50-£16. To book call (01223) 357851.

The classics

CLASSICAL guitarist Tim Christmas will be performing Renaissance and Baroque music at Great St Mary's Church in Cambridge on Saturday at 3pm. The programme features works by John Dowland, Robert de Visée, Henry Purcell and Bach and includes Greensleeves and Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring. Tickets are £7 on the door.

Off to the movies with silver band . . .

A NIGHT at the movies with Haverhill Silver Band is on offer at the town's arts centre on Sunday.

After the hugely successful joint concert with the Haverhill Youth and Community Band in February, Haverhill Silver will perform by themselves for the first time locally in 2008.

The band will present a concert featuring music from the magical world of cinema, including epics such as the John Williams themes from Indiana Jones and Star Wars, but also

■ IN TUNE . . . for making movie music with the Haverhill Silver Band.

CP.

gentler pieces such as The Ashokan Farewell from The Civil War and the haunting Tara's Theme from

Gone with the Wind. Music from James Bond classics and more jovial scores from Disney favourites and Austin Powers will also be performed. Tickets are selling fast. To book call the box office on (01440) 714140. The event starts at 7.30pm and admission is £6.50 or £5 for concessions.

A pub, one night, and rounds of applause

WHO fancies a trip to the pub? Popular Hull Truck Theatre Company returns to the Haverhill Arts Centre on Friday with Two, a tale involving one pub, one night, 14 characters and two actors.

From the writer of The Rise and Fall of Little Voice, this is a hilarious and sharply observed look at Northern pub life. It starts at 8pm.

■ Is a blank white canvas art? How would your friends react to spending 200,000 francs on such an outrageous purchase? Bury St Edmunds' Theatre Royal Community Tour brings Art, a warm and witty exploration of friendship, and winner of the 1997 Olivier Award for Best New Comedy, to the arts centre on Friday, May 2 at 8pm.

■ Based on Philippa Gregory's book – which won the Parker Romantic Novel of the Year award for her re-telling of the story of Mary Boleyn, younger sister of Henry VIII's second queen – The Other Boleyn Girl (12A) is showing on Saturday at 7.45pm and Monday at 1.30pm and 7.45pm.

■ Haverhill Keyboard Club hosts Sarah Foley, an accomplished musician who will be playing a wide range of instruments, from modern electronic organs and keyboards to the alto sax next Tuesday at 7.30pm.

■ Get the tissues ready for a return screening of PS I Love You (12A) next Thursday at 7.45pm. When Holly's husband succumbs to a fatal illness she feels she cannot go on without the love of her life. Unbeknown to her, Gerry had planned ahead and on her birthday sends her a message that urges her to go out and celebrate. Over the following months he sends her more messages, delivered in the most surprising of ways.

■ For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

When it comes to love, the direct approach works best. If you have a crush on someone, make your feelings known. You won't have to use lots of pretty words to win this person's heart. In fact, the more plainly you speak, the better.

Taurus Apr 21 - May 21

You'll be more assertive than usual in romantic situations. You're tired of waiting for your amour to make the first move. Fortunately, the object of your affection will be delighted by your overtures. Make a case for why you deserve a pay raise.

Gemini May 22 - Jun 22

Extreme sensitivity lets you get closer to someone you love. You know this person's feelings before he or she says a word. Be ready to relieve your amour of a dreaded chore. They'll be eternally grateful for this sacrifice.

Cancer Jun 23 - Jul 23

You don't really care what people think, which makes you popular so don't be surprised if you're invited to lots of parties and get together. If you're single, let a friend set you up on a blind date. You might just meet someone sexy.

Leo Jul 24 - Aug 23

You're very reserved, and with good reason. It's not clear whether you can trust someone yet. Maintain a "wait and see" strategy. You'll get more insight to this person's character by watching their actions than listening to their words.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.
- ☐ Dismantle any light fittings etc., not included in the sale.
- ☐ Turn off electric appliances.
- ☐ Disconnect cooker.
- ☐ Turn off boiler/central heating.
- ☐ Turn off water.
- ☐ Read gas meter.
- ☐ Read electricity meter.
- ☐ Secure all windows.
- ☐ Lock all doors.
- ☐ Leave key as arranged with new owners.
- ☐ On arrival at your new home, unpack slowly and methodically so that you can check for loss or damage.

3 EXTRA HINTS FOR A SMOOTH MOVE...

WHO TO NOTIFY:

- ☐ Banks.
- ☐ Building Societies.
- ☐ Credit companies.
- ☐ Insurance companies.
- ☐ Gas, Electricity and Water Boards.
- ☐ Telephone company.
- ☐ Local Authority (Rating Department).
- ☐ Driving Licence authorities.
- ☐ Inland Revenue.
- ☐ Store cards and accounts.
- ☐ Other lease, hire or rental companies.
- ☐ Employer.
- ☐ Doctor.
- ☐ Dentist.
- ☐ Schools.
- ☐ Professional Bodies/Trade Unions.
- ☐ Motoring organisations.
- ☐ Newsagent.
- ☐ Friends and relatives.

Putting one over White Van Man

THE Fiat Sedici is a surprising car. It looks the size of a small hatchback – a hatchback up on stilts at that – yet get inside it and you’ll find the first of your pleasant surprises.

The deep blue of the test car is that of a metallic Tardis and, although it can make no comparisons to the BBC’s most famous time machine, it is certainly more spacious than it appears from the outside.

Sit in any of the seats and there is more leg, head and shoulder room than you may first assume. The Sedici is not simply a normal car on raised suspension, but a hatchback with a higher roofline than usual. This high roof gives a large, light space to accommodate all heights of passengers. A small transmission tunnel and lack of awkward storage spaces keeps the rest of the cabin free of clutter, freeing up space and creating an airy car which makes excellent use of the space available.

The second surprise offered is the handling. A tall car on high suspension really should not handle as well as the Sedici. It sticks to the road fantastically well when thrown into a corner and gently understeers at more hectic speeds.

This nimble handling is shocking in that the Sedici is aimed at the urban jungle rather than a twisting B-road but, set free from the confines of town, there is plenty of fun to be had. Best to leave the passengers at home though because the body does roll a fair bit giving the potential for on-land seasickness.

At more normal levels of speed and cornering, the Sedici is a reasonable motorway runner, with the sixth gear making sure that it isn’t too noisy and the fuel consumption is good on long trips.

Thankfully, the fun side of the

THE FIAT SEDICI . . . a comfortable town car with excellent visibility.

Sedici does not ruin its main brief – to get around town easily. The suspension damps the humps and bumps ever-prevalent on our roads nicely and the tall springs also provide a high-ish driving position for better vision and the ability to not be intimidated by White Van Man.

The 120bhp diesel engine pulls cleanly and with a reasonable amount of torque. Around town the 1.9 litre unit returns around 35mpg and pulls nicely in any gear thanks to the 206lb ft of torque available.

The Sedici is also almost the perfect practical height. Occupants climb in – not up or down – to the seats. This will be great for a large number of car buyers.

Basically . . .

A comfortable town car, with a good amount of practical space, not out of its depth on the open road.

Excellent used values predicted for the latest Focus (launched in February)

THE new-look Ford Focus, launched in February, is expected to be worth up to £500 more than the model it replaces when the first examples reach the second-hand market later this year, according to the used car valuation experts at EurotaxGlass's.

List prices for new examples will remain the same as the outgoing Focus – introduced in 2004 – but improved styling and enhanced specification across the range should make the latest-generation model more desirable to used car buyers, suggests EurotaxGlass's.

"The Ford range is full of big sellers, and there is none bigger than the Focus, which has been the UK's best-selling car every year since 1999," comments Johnathan Brown, car editor at EurotaxGlass's.

"High sales volumes inevitably put pressure on the residual values of Fords – with so many examples of each car to choose from, buyers are spoilt for choice, and supply generally satisfies demand.

"When the latest Focus hits the forecourts, however, stocks will be limited for the first few months. Prices will hold up fairly well, reflecting the low level of supply and the anticipated jump in demand for what many perceive to be a more attractive car compared to its predecessor."

When the used car market senses that the new model is available in greater numbers, the Focus may revert to type, as Brown explains. "An increase in supply is expected to erode the price premium, eventually leaving values only marginally ahead of the previous Focus. Much will depend on Ford's approach to handling sales volumes. Putting significant quantities into short-term rental companies, for example, will bring a large number of units back to the second-hand market very quickly. If Ford takes a more controlled approach, values may remain relatively high for many months."

■ BETTER VALUE . . . new Focus should be worth more than £500 used than its predecessor.

'What Diesel' lists star car winners

Jaguar XF is top of competitive sector

WITH diesel registrations close to smashing the 50 per cent barrier of the new car market, the annual What Diesel "Car of the Year" award winners are announced by Ian Robertson, editor of What Diesel magazine.

Voted on by a panel of ten esteemed judges, including Sue Baker, Russell Bray and Simon Hacker amongst others, the ten What Diesel "Car Of The Year" category winners epitomise what is the very best of modern diesel engined motoring.

In announcing the winners, editor Ian Robertson, said: "This year has seen some tough opposition join the new car market, with the Fiat 500 and Jaguar XF leading the pack.

"There are also some familiar names lining up to collect awards, with the Citroën C4 Grand Picasso, Ford Mondeo, Land Rover Freelander 2 and Nissan Qashqai joining the honours list for the second year running."

"I am delighted to announce that the Jaguar XF has won the coveted title of What Diesel Car of the Year 2008. It is well deserved and is testament to all the fine people that are proud to say that they work for Jaguar. The car drives exceptionally, and looks absolutely stunning and catapults Jaguar right up the road to success."

Almost a third of all the award winners are British-built (Jaguar XF, Land Rover Freelander 2 and Nissan Qashqai), and that sends out an important message that Britain is at the forefront of the very best of car manufacturing and engineering. In addition, the best large family car, the Ford Mondeo, features engines that are built in the UK, at Ford's Diesel Centre at Dagenham in Essex.

The awards issue isn't just concerned with new cars – the What Diesel Used Car of the Year award winners are announced at the same time.

The Volkswagen Golf scooped the best used family hatchback award, as well as being awarded the winner of the What Diesel Used Car of the Year 2008.

There was strong performance from Mitsubishi, with the Shogun and L200 both winning their respective categories.

Best used small car: Mini One D (2003-2006)

Best used family hatchback: VW Golf 1.9 TDI (1998-2004)

Cost is the reason for buying a green motor

A What Car? survey reveals today that two-thirds of prospective new car purchasers will be looking to buy a greener vehicle in the next 12 months.

However, 47 per cent of purchasers say they will be buying a greener car for financial reasons, while only 19 per cent say environmental issues are the main factors for their next car.

Steve Fowler, What Car? group editor, said: "The Government will be pleased with this news coming so soon after Alistair Darling's Budget. However, with the cost of living increasing and with wages failing to keep up, car buyers are saying financial pressures are of more concern than helping the environment."

Last month, Chancellor

Alistair Darling announced a raft of measures in his first Budget designed to encourage motorists to buy more environmentally friendly cars. These measures included new Vehicle Excise Duty (road tax) bands that will come into force in 2009, which will make buyers of more polluting cars pay more in road tax.

Plus, in 2010, the Government will introduce a so-called "Showroom Tax" where buyers of the most polluting cars will pay a new, higher rate of tax in the first year ownership, while new cars with carbon dioxide emissions of less than 130g/km will not pay any road tax in the first year.

"Even if you aren't planning to buy a new car soon, motorists can still do their bit for their environment by following the What Car? guide to greener driving," said Fowler.

1. Driving at 60mph uses up to nine per cent less fuel than at 70mph and, on more advanced vehicles, motorists can take advantage of cruise control – a steady speed is also more fuel efficient.

2. Keep weight down – ensure your car is as free of clutter as possible, and remove roof and bicycle racks when not in use.

3. Plan your journey and use a satellite-navigation system or on-line routing site before you set off. Getting lost or stuck in traffic pumps additional CO2 into the atmosphere.

4. Travel outside of rush hour to avoid congestion.

5. Try not to use all of your car gadgets at once – they all use energy and contribute to your vehicle's CO2 output.

6. Be a better driver and read the road ahead – hang back from the traffic in front so you don't have to brake and accelerate every time it slows down and speeds up.

7. Turn engines off when stuck in traffic or when waiting for passengers to arrive.

8. Consider offsetting your emissions – look at websites such as www.climatecare.org that can help calculate your CO2 output.

9. Look at car sharing, set up a system at your place of work or start a car-sharing school-run.

What Car? will be announcing the winners of its first Green Awards at the British International Motor Show on the July 22 at ExCeL London.

What Car? will also be showcasing the latest environmental cars and technology in the Greener Driving Pavilion, where consumers can get hands-on with some of the latest green innovations available now and see what's coming in the future.

■ THE GREEN CAR OF THE YEAR . . . is the BMW 1 Series.

Classic cars are getting ever more desirable

THE classic car cult is set to go large as more and more British drivers home in on the advantages of owning a car that is cheap to insure, doesn't attract road tax, and has an easy-to-maintain engine.

Even the country's biggest vehicle auctioneers, British Car Auctions (BCA), is forecasting huge demand for classic wheels and has rebranded its ■ COOL . . . classic Austin Healey.

Classic and Historic Automobile Division to reflect the changing attitudes and interest in classic cars.

BCA is also predicting increased demand for 1980s models, following the success of Ashes To Ashes, the BBC sequel to retro cop show Life On Mars. The show has brought the return of DCI Gene Hunt, but this time the action takes place in the 1980s, with Hunt swapping his Ford Cortina for an Audi Quattro.

Robin Lawton, head of BCA's Classics department, comments: "People are beginning to feel a sense of nostalgia for 1980s fashions, and this includes cars like the Golf GTI, Rover SD1, Ford Cortina, BMW and Mercedes models of that era, several of which feature in our next classics sale."

Robin Lawton says classic wheels can now cover several generations: "Today's classics are as likely to be from the 1960s, 70s, 80s and even 90s, as from the early 20th century.

"We are seeing a much broader range of cars at our auctions, and the demand for cars from the 1970s and 80s has developed as new collectors and enthusiasts enter the market."

And if you think these motors will be too pricey, then heed Lawton's expert opinion: "It's not just the supercars or prestige vehicles from those years – there is a genuine and growing interest in the defining cars from those decades such as the Mini, Ford Cortina, Rover SD1, and Vauxhall Viva. They were the family cars of their day."

BCA Classics has a website – www.bca-classics.co.uk – which, besides giving sales information, also features a forum for visitors to share information and knowledge on caring for their own classic car.

More importantly, it includes a free online valuation service. Owners submit details of what they own, and receive an estimated value of their pride and joy.

THE iconic Pirelli name is set to make a return to the Golf GTI range exactly 25 years after the original made its debut as the new Volkswagen Golf GTI Pirelli is launched in the UK. Originally introduced in May 1983 the GTI Pirelli was based on the MkI Golf and featured the distinctive Pirelli ‘P’ alloy wheels. The vehicle proved to be an instant hit with its planned production run of just 10,500 vehicles selling out within six-months. For 2008 the GTI Pirelli returns to the UK. Based on the MkV GTI bodysell the new vehicle features uprated dynamics and aesthetics to distinguish it from the standard car.

At its heart is an enhanced version of the 2.0-litre T-FSI engine with its output raised from the standard 197bhp to 227bhp. Drive is channelled through a choice of six-speed manual or the twin-clutch DSG gearbox. The new GTI Pirelli reduces the standard car’s 0-62mph time of 7.2 seconds to 6.8 seconds while the top speed rises from 146mph to 152mph. As with the original GTI Pirelli the new car features a set of unique alloy wheels. The modest 13-inch wheels fitted to the 1983 car have evolved into a set of five-spoke 18-inch versions fitted, appropriately, with a set of 225/40 R18 Pirelli P-Zero tyres. Body-coloured elements including the front splitter, side skirts and rear bumper are complimented by a set of smoked rear light lenses and tinted rear windows. A unique Pirelli badge mounted on the bootlid further distinguishes the new car which will be available in a choice of three colours – reflex silver, diamond black and blue graphite. The Pirelli theme continues to the vehicle’s interior which features unique half-leather sports seats with tyre-tread imprints set into the seat base and back. Yellow stitching contrasts against the black leather of the seats, sports steering wheel and handbrake. Despite the focused nature of the vehicle the standard specification remains high. A total of six airbags, 2Zone electronic climate control, a CD stereo system and Electronic Stabilisation Programme (ESP) are all standard. The new Golf GTI Pirelli is available to order now with the first vehicles set to arrive in the country in June. Prices will start at £22,555 for the three-door model equipped with a six-speed manual gearbox, rising to £24,385 for the five door model fitted with a six-speed DSG gearbox.

THE A14 TRUNK ROAD
(SPALDWICK TO ELLINGTON, CAMBRIDGESHIRE)
(TEMPORARY 50 MILES PER HOUR
SPEED RESTRICTION) ORDER 2008

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the A14 Trunk Road in Cambridgeshire to allow for drainage replacement works between Spaldwick Interchange and Ellington to be carried out in safety.

It is expected that the works will take place over 9 nights, weekdays only, starting on or after Tuesday 6 May 2008. The Order will come into force on 28 April and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The effect of the Order will be to impose a 50 miles per hour speed limit in conjunction with lane closures, on the A14 from the centre line of Spaldwick Interchange (Junction 18) to a point 400 metres east of the centre line of Ellington Interchange (Junction 20), a distance of 4.1 kilometres, between the hours of -

- 8pm Mondays to Thursdays and 6am the following mornings, and
- 9pm Fridays to 6am Saturdays.

Traffic signs will indicate the extent of the speed restriction which will not apply to emergency service vehicles.

£25,134 - £32,796 pa

In this new role you will provide a full and accurate financial management service and supervision of the administrative services in the Centre. You will be leading the financial planning and budgeting processes in connection with the Centre's recently awarded Major Research Facility status, developing and maintaining the full economic costing structure of scans and radioligand production and assisting and advising the Chairman and Directors on strategic financial matters and negotiations.

You will have a degree level qualification in business studies or a similar discipline and previous experience in financial management of a complex organisation, with particular reference to budgetary and resource management within the research environment. You will have the ability to work and think flexibly and possess a high level of interpersonal skills to facilitate liaison with both the WBIC team and collaborating interdisciplinary colleagues.

A detailed knowledge of the Financial Regulations of the University would be an advantage as would experience of the Oracle based University Finance System, although training will be given.

Further particulars can be found on the WBIC webpage at: www.wbic.cam.ac.uk and also from Mrs Beryl Ripsler (01223 331823) Wolfson Brain Imaging Centre, Box 65, Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, CB2 0QQ. ## YOUTH FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Bates the star as Thurlow slam six

Balsham Colts U11 0
Thurlow Youth U11 6

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

THURLOW continued their excellent season with a victory over local rivals Balsham.

A hard bumpy surface that made it difficult to play, but Thurlow still managed a fine display of passing football.

Marsh opened the scoring with a superbly timed run latching on to a cross to the far post.

Williamson hit the second minutes later and grabbed the third, and his second, after great persistence from Walsh and through ball by Bluett.

Balsham's solid defending kept the score down to three at half-time and this continued for most of the second half, when everything was controlled by the Thurlow midfield, especially through man-of-the-match Tommy Bates.

It was not long before Culley hit the fourth, courtesy of Goodings' pass, and then keeper-turned-striker Smith got himself on to the score sheet to make it five.

Marsh picked up his second cleverly diverting Wilson's shot in to the roof of the net to make it a 6-0 scoreline.

Thurlow could have had more without the woodwork being struck three times and two goal-line clearances, along with several fine saves from the Balsham keeper.

Aztecs Juniors U11 2
West Wrattling Youth U11 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

THIS game was alive right from kick-off and, in the first few minutes, Millar was called into action to make two saves, while Lambert also came close to scoring for Wrattling.

On five minutes, Lambert looked to have opened the scoring when his shot appeared to cross the line off the underside of the bar, but the referee called play on.

Scotton then set up Lambert for a volley, which hit the top of the bar and went over.

Aztecs broke down the right after nine minutes and the cross was poked home at close range to make it 1-0 to the home team.

Wrattling defended well and Millar was busier than usual, but rose to the task with several good saves.

Foster, Bush and Cooper also worked hard creating chances for Lambert, who again looked sharp up front.

It was he, who levelled for Wrattling on 24 minutes after running at the defence and stroking the ball past the advancing keeper.

In the second half, Wrattling seemed determined to finish the season on a high and pushed forward from the kick-off.

In the first minute, Lambert hit the bar for the third time, with a long shot and Bush could not quite bury the rebound.

Lambert was denied by the keeper on several occasions and Scotton headed just over.

Aztecs forced Millar into a good double save before they took the lead again with a good finish.

Minutes later Millar prevented a third, saving with his leg.

With 10 minutes remaining, Scotton scored a deserved equaliser with a shot from the edge of the box which took a deflection off a defender.

Cooper was unlucky not to secure the points when his neat back heel was saved by the keeper.

Wrattling's man-of-the-match award was shared by Scotton and Lambert, while Bush was named by the opposition.

Withersfield's fine run ends

Withersfield Youth U11 2
Saffron Walden U11 2

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 11B

WITH the league safely in the bag with games to spare Withersfield were under instruction not to ease up. However, this proved to be a game too much, against a well-organised Saffron Walden team.

The opening stages saw an impressive long-range effort from Oliver Fish before goals from the head of Murray Barker and Josh Hughes had the home side 2-0 up.

But, the visitors grew in confidence and came back into the game with two goals to enter the break level.

Ryan Harrow put on a good display in the Withersfield defence, spraying the ball into midfield where his side had problems breaking down a well-drilled Walden side. But, it was a remarkable effort from the visitors to bring to an end Withersfield's run of 32 consecutive league wins.

Grampian Gunners U14 7
Newmarket Town U14 0

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 14A

A FIRST hat-trick for Jordan

Palazon capped this fine display by the Gunners team, as they finished their season on a high. Skipper Luke Youngs weighed in with a brace and there was one each for Jacob Brown and Luke Halls.

The back four well marshalled by William Howe never looked like conceding and it could have been a few more as Tom Bailey rattled the crossbar and Dale Pryke shaved the post.

Jordan Jackson also went close on a number of occasions.

Grampian finish their first season in the top division in a more than respectable eighth position.

Gunners' manager Simon Youngs said: "We have enjoyed ourselves this season, even if some weeks we haven't performed as well as we would like."

"The boys are a credit because they never moan and just get on with it. They all turn up week after week and always give their all and that's all you can ask."

Keiran is Hawks' saving Grace

Hundon Hawks U9 4
Whittlesford U9 4

WHITTLESFORD raced into a 3-0 lead before the Hawks pulled one back when Branham Ince followed up as Milo Holmes hit the post.

Skipper Holmes then volleyed home from long range to make it 3-2 before the Warriors pushed forward to score again. Liam Cohen was excellent in defence with Jake Ryan, Tommy Goodwin and Anders Pilley combining well.

Man-of-the-match Holmes' shot was saved on the line and Ince put in the rebound for Hundon's third and, with just minutes remaining, Hawks squared the game when Keiran Grace smashed in the equaliser from the edge of the box.

NST Strikers U10 2
West Wrattling Yellows U10 2

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10E

AN even first half saw chances at both ends. Matt Carpenter came close for the visitors with a glancing header, while, at the other end, James Woodward, Callum Dray and Liam Gibbs had their hands full with the lively NST forwards.

Despite their efforts, Wrattling went in at half time 2-0 down. The second half saw Jake Murphy take command of the midfield, ably helped by Scott Bishop, Dion Whitrid, Leyton George and Carpenter.

A Charlie Ellam shot cannoned off the post, but man-of-the-match Charlie Ripp was on hand to fire home to give the visitors hope.

Wrattling now sensed an equaliser and seconds after the referee had signalled that there were three minutes remaining, a goalmouth scramble saw Ellam fire past the keeper into the back of the net for a deserved equaliser.

Grampian Gunners U10 4
Thurlow U10 1

GRAMPIAN wingers Jamie Lingard and man-of-the match Toby Daly setting a fast pace from the start in a game, which saw Gunners have an incredible 31 shots.

Lewis Whiting, Bailey Cassidy and Jason Moore added to the pressure on the Thurlow goal, all having shots saved.

The first goal came from a Daly corner, which Mitchell Forshaw converted.

The second followed another Daly cross, which George Mustoe slid in at the far post.

The second half saw Daly cross yet again to Mustoe, who turned and fired in from the edge of the box for his brace. Josh Matthewson's running paid off when he drew three defenders before passing to Forshaw, who scored from distance for his double.

Thurlow never gave up and, deep into stoppage time, mounted one last attack. Grampian keeper Lewis Knightly made a great save, only for the ball to hit the unlucky Jack Davis and deflect in for an own goal.

Fulbourn Institute U10 0
West Wrattling Reds U10 14

REDS' early pressure paid off when a low-driven cross was turned in to his own goal by a pressurised Fulbourn defender. With the home side packing five players in their midfield, Wrattling passed the ball through and around this midfield wall and soon were on the goal trail again, with Paul Jenkinson slotting home from close range.

This goal was quickly followed by Alex Carter and Will Bailey both scoring shortly before the interval.

The second half saw Wrattling continue their good form and they took their opportunities with Alex Carter notching six goals, Will Bailey scoring a brace, along with Sean Elsom and Ben Earnes scoring one a piece.

Grampian Gunners U9 3
Hundon Hawks U9 3

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 9D

THIS local derby started at a good pace with both sides making early chances.

With Farrow and Woodley playing well at the back for Gunners, the first period finished goalless.

The second period started well for Gunners with Robson shooting home, but, within minutes, Hawks were level. Gunners missed chances through Gage and Henderson before Fletcher made it 2-1. Hawks pushed hard and scored from a flick header at the end of the period.

The game moved into its last period with Hawks nicking a goal to lead 3-2, but Gunners were not finished and created a good chance for Austin to equalise.

FOOTBALL

Shaw pounces to wrap up thriller

Haverhill 4 King's Lynn res 3

RIDGEONS LEAGUE, PREMIER DIVISION

THE loss of goalkeeper Jamie Smith almost cost Haverhill Rovers three Ridgeons League, Premier Division points, but Paul Shaw's second goal was enough to seal a 4-3 win over King's Lynn reserves on Tuesday night.

The hosts shot into a 3-0 lead with Ryan Kent's strike going in off the post to open the scoring on 29 minutes after some good work by Sam Green.

Rovers doubled their lead seven minutes later when Kent set up Shaw for his first, which was a volley.

And Marc Abbott hit a candidate for goal of the season with a 40-yard bullet drive along the floor to give Haverhill what appeared to be an unassailable lead.

But Smith came off at half time with a knock to be replaced by Brad Deeks and Lynn were level with three goals in a seven-minute spell around the hour mark.

The visitors made it 3-1 on 60 minutes, before getting a second 32 seconds later and stunned the hosts with an equaliser on 67 minutes.

However, Haverhill had Shaw to thank when he spared their blushes by popping up with the winner nine minutes from time.

HAVERHILL will feel hard done to by the manner in which they lost out to Stanway on Saturday, a controversial late penalty allowing the visitors to leave Hamlet Croft with all three points.

A tight match with precious few chances on goal seemed destined to end in a goalless draw.

Kent's tame effort at the end of the first half was the only real chance before the break and Green launched a free kick over the top just past the hour.

Haverhill's best chance to win the game arrived on 78 minutes when Jamie Thurlbourne's cross found Shaw unmarked, but his first-time effort was well saved by the Stanway keeper.

However, the away side got a soft penalty when a striker went down easily under pressure from James Catten and they slotted home the spot-kick in the fourth minute of stoppage time.

Westleys dig in to secure Colville draw

WESTON Colville had to settle for a draw when they opened their Tucker Gardner Cambs & Hunts Premier League, Division Two season against Fordham on Saturday.

Batting first, the Fordham innings got under way with an opening wicket partnership of 146 between Ian Baldwin and Mark Silcock.

Baldwin (81) and Silcock (67) and a late 40 not out from captain Graham Arnold saw Fordham to 249 for 6.

But brothers Trevor Westley and skipper Adie Westley (both 56) kept Colville in the match as they ended on 182 for 5.

RUGBY

Struggling Haverhill look on bright side

BEN Jones believes the arrival of Andy Price will allow Haverhill & District Rugby Club to improve in leaps and bounds next season.

The stand-in skipper is confident that the new coach, who is joining the club from Bury St Edmunds, will get the team firing again.

Haverhill were forced to concede the final game of their Eastern Counties League, Division Two campaign at Southwold on Saturday after suffering another injury crisis.

The acting captain had only eight players for their trip to Suffolk and did offer to travel to the coast before their opponents told them not to bother and they were handed a walkover.

But Jones, who has stood in for the injured Dave Quinney in recent weeks, thinks Price can help the side compete for a mid-table position next year.

He said: "We were willing to go to Southwold with eight players and let them hammer us as they were going for promotion.

"They weren't very happy, but they told us not to worry about it. So it was a sad way to end the season.

"We might still finish joint-bottom of the league if we get two points deducted after Saturday, but I think we can be more competitive next season and establish ourselves in mid-table.

"Andy's had some success coaching the under-19s at Bury and we'll be starting pre-season when he arrives in June, and going at it hard."
